

PROVIDENCE
COLLEGE

School of Professional Studies

Graduate Programs in Education | Admission Requirements by Program

School Counseling • M.Ed.

Application Materials

All applicants to graduate studies in school counseling must submit the following materials and prepare for an interview/role play with the admissions committee:

- 1 Completed application and *personal statement
- 2 Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts
- 3 Two letters of recommendation (submitted on official forms with recommenders' name signed across the seal)
 - both from school administrators/supervisors (educators)
 - both from undergraduate professors (non-educators)
- 4 Personal interview /role playing session with the admissions committee
- 5 Application fee of $55.00

Personal Statement

In your statement, please discuss your experience and commitment to the following:

- 1 Reasons for pursuing graduate work
- 2 Academic background
- 3 Future plans
- 4 Summary of experience

Please mail your application materials to:

Providence College
Master's in School Counseling Program
Harkins Hall 217
One Cunningham Square
Providence, RI 02918