

PROVIDENCE
COLLEGE

School of Professional Studies

Graduate Programs in Education | Admission Requirements by Program

Urban Teaching • M.Ed.

Application Materials

All applicants to graduate studies in urban teaching must submit the following materials and prepare for an interview with urban teaching faculty:

- 1 Completed application
- 2 Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts
- 3 Current resume
- 4 Statement of intent*
- 5 Two letters of recommendation (preferably submitted by a past or present instructor/supervisor)
- 6 Copy of teacher certification
- 7 Application fee of $55.00

*Statement of Intent

In your statement of intent, please outline the purpose for seeking admission to the Urban Teaching program and including career and academic goals. In addition, candidates should discuss their experiences working with urban youth and their vision for enacting social justice as a teacher.

Please mail your completed application to:

Providence College
Graduate Urban Teaching Program
Harkins Hall 217
One Cunningham Square
Providence, RI 02918